

The 2009 Davis County Fair is 8/12-8/15 at the fairgrounds in Farmington.

This year's theme is "GO WILD!" and it promises to be bigger and better than all the rest.

Don't miss the Kachunga and the Alligator Show where the audience will get to see an 8 ft. alligator up close! The fair is also featuring an FMX Motocross show, the PRCA Rodeo, country star Charley Jenkins, a Demolition Derby, a 100 animal petting zoo, and much more.

This year's entertainment includes a Deal or No Deal Derby, Irish and Polynesian dancers, puppet shows, a comedy showcase by Wiseguys Comedy Cafe, and lots of music!

You too can become a star by entering our "DAVIS COUNTY'S GOT TALENT" competition! All ages and talents are welcome! Contact us for more info.

You can become a fan of the Davis County on facebook.com and follow us on twitter.com/DavisCountyFair.

This year's fair is going to be filled with enough thrills, fun, and excitement for the whole family!

See you at the fair!
